COME ON --
IN JULY 1984!

FROM
JULY 8-15,
ESTO 84,

the fourth
Estonian
World
Festival
takes place, in TORONTO.

What is ESTO 84 ?!!

ESTO 84 is the fourth Estonian World Festival, where many thousands of Estonians and friends, from all over the free world, will gather for a week of delightfully hectic activity - a myriad of concerts, theatrical performances, sports competitions, conferences of all kinds, dances and exhibits of books, art and native crafts - not to mention many occasions for reunions and parties.

ESTO 84 will bring to you a mosaic of fun and serious events.

The Estonian World Festival, to be held in Toronto, from July 8-15, 1984, is the fourth in the series: Toronto 1972, Baltimore 1976, Stockholm 1980 and now again in Toronto in 1984. Previous festivals have attracted over 20,000 spectators from all over the world, with well over 2000 performers. The first World Festival was the culmination of several smaller "East Coast", "West Coast", "Swedish", "Australian", etc. festivals held in the previous 30 or so years. Such festivals have a long tradition, going back to the first Estonian Song Festival held in Tartu, Estonia in 1869.

ESTORAMA Sunday, July 8. Starting at 1:00 PM. Launching ESTO 84 is the formal Grand Opening Ceremony, at Ontario Place, followed by a colourful variety programme showcasing the performing talents of Estonian artists from around the world.

SPARKLES Monday, July 9. 21:00. CN Tower. Head for the very top for a dance in the highest discotheque in the world! Enjoy the breathtaking view of Toronto by night.

RHYTHMIC GYMNASTS Monday, July 9. 14:30 and 19:30. Elite corps of Estonian gymnasts offer two performances of sheer joy of movement and vivacity. At 14:30, "Kalev-Estienne" of Toronto, "Idla" of Sweden, "Ritmika" of Toronto and "Questo" of Montreal. At 19:30, "Kalev-Estienne" of Toronto and "Malmö-Flickorna" of Sweden. All at McMillan Theatre, in the Edward Johnson Building, near ROM.

KAVAL-ANTS & VANAPAGAN Tuesday, July 10. 17:00. Clever "Ants" plays all sorts of tricks on his mighty but not so clever master - "Vanapagan". All in traditional folk dance accompanied by the music of old folk instruments. At Minkler Auditorium, Seneca College (Finch/Don Mills Rd.).

CEREMONIAL PROCESSION Thursday, July 11. 11:00. A colourful and festive parade consisting of all the participants, cheered on by thousands of friends, relatives and Torontonians. The culmination of this spectacular traditional procession at Toronto's City Hall is a salute to all the Estonians in the world.

ESTO VISIOON Friday, July 13. 20:00. An exuberant production of movement, music and light. Close to a thousand folk dancers and rhythmic gymnasts from all the world will perform traditional and modern, interchanging and complex patterns to the accompaniment of music. At the Maple Leaf Gardens.

SONG FESTIVAL Saturday, July 14. 14:00. The massed voices of over a thousand men, women and children in their folk costumes will satiate and delight you with selections from the rich repertory of Estonian choral music. At the Maple Leaf Gardens.

Other events where language plays a lesser role:

- EXHIBITIONS - handicrafts, our ethnographic heritage
